Discussion Questions

Service-Learning Project
• What is the issue being addressed (problem)?
• How is your project addressing the issue (policy)?
• What is the context in which your project is taking place (politics)?
• What are some limitations of the policy solution to addressing the immediate problem, as defined? To addressing the larger problem?
• What are some of the benefits of this approach?
• Why is your host organization taking this approach?

Individual/Group Experience
• What do you bring to the organization?
• What are your goals for the project?
• How are you achieving those goals? What do you need to achieve those goals?
• How is this service-learning experience connecting to the course content (or not)?
• How does this service-learning experience align with your goals for your degree program?
• What would you change about your service-learning experience?
• What would you keep the same?
• Additional thoughts?
